New Nominations for election – 2 seats

Elaine Price	Current Role/Background: I previously worked for the NHS and in education, but for past few years I've been a full-time carer for my family members as well as dealing with my own health and disabilities. I would say I have become so much of an advocate for all these things and the difficulties surrounding them. I like to keep up to date with the latest SEND and disability information, the 'WIASS' and 'Wolverhampton carers team'. I am currently and have been for the past two years now an active member of the 'Wolverhampton City Housing Oversight Panel' which has given me a lot of knowledge of everything housing and tenant related and other council matters. I regularly attend the 'Love Your Community' meetings and like to keep up to date with everything that is going on locally within the Wolverhampton area, as well as what is available love for local people and residents of Wolverhampton. I'm a friendly, social, dedicated person but I would love to say my best asset is that I care about people. I care about our estate and what happens locally and I care about the City of Wolverhampton. I am a firm believer not being happy in your home is not just about inside your home but also what is going on outside your home. Why They're Standing for Election: I would love to see the Dovecotes estate grow from strength to strength but most importantly I would love to bring back a good old fashioned community spirit and neighbourly friendship where everyone feels safe and heard and we all lookout for each other and we all care and take pride in our community. I would love to see a fairer housing policy where every resident /tenant housing needs are met. Key Areas of Interest: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Inclusive Community Engagement• Resident Welfare• Transformational Change
